UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT PEMBROKE

http://www.uncp.edu/

Brief Description

A comprehensive university offering degree programs at the baccalaureate and master's levels. Its instructional programs are organized into a College of Arts and Sciences, a School of Business, a School of Education, and a School of Graduate Studies. The University offers Master's Degree programs in several Education areas, and in Business Administration, Public Administration, School Counseling, and Service Agency Counseling. UNC Pembroke is committed to equality of opportunity. To further racial integration, the University actively seeks to recruit and enroll a greater number of Native American and African-American students.

History

Founded in 1887 by and for the Indians of Robeson County, UNC Pembroke was originally known as the Croatan Normal School. The first college degrees were awarded in 1940, and the name was changed to Pembroke State College for Indians. That name was shortened to Pembroke State College a few years later. In 1969, the institution was granted University status; and in 1972, it became one of the 16 constituent institutions of the University of North Carolina. Pembroke State University became the University of North Carolina at Pembroke in 1996.

Location

Pembroke (population: 2,700), in the southeastern region of North Carolina, 1 1/2 hours from the coast and 1 hour from Pinehurst. Pembroke is 30 minutes south of Fayetteville, a city of more than 120,000. The University is also near Interstate 95 and U.S. 74, major north-south and east-west arteries.
