Brief Description

A comprehensive university offering degree programs at the baccalaureate, masters and doctoral levels. Instructional programs are organized under the schools of Business and Economics, Education, and the College of Arts and Sciences. Provides undergraduate instruction in the education center at nearby Fort Bragg/Pope AFB. Offers graduate degrees in elementary education, middle grades education, special education, school administration, secondary education, business administration, English, history, biology, mathematics, psychology, political science, sociology, and doctoral degree in educational leadership. FSU is committed to equality of opportunity. To further racial integration, the University actively seeks to recruit and enroll a greater number of non-Black students.

History

Established as Howard School in 1867. Became state-supported State Colored Normal School in 1877, and Normal State School in 1926. First four-year class graduated and institution renamed Fayetteville State Teachers College in 1939. Became Fayetteville State College in 1963 and Fayetteville State University in 1969. Merged into the University of North Carolina in 1972.

Location

Fayetteville (city-county population: 308,000), home of Fort Bragg/Pope AFB (48,000) and a trade and business center in the sandhills area, designated as an "All American City." Nearby are the resorts of Southern Pines and Pinehurst.
