UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL

http://www.unc.edu/

Brief Description

A major research university offering programs at the baccalaureate, master's, intermediate, first professional, and doctoral levels. It is the state's principal center of graduate education and research at the doctoral levels (except for certain areas assigned to North Carolina State University and the University of North Carolina at Greensboro). Its instructional programs are offered through two divisions. The division of academic affairs consists of eight colleges and schools. The division of health affairs includes five schools. There are 34 centers, institutes, and multidisciplinary programs. The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill is committed to equality of opportunity. To further diversity, the University actively seeks to recruit and enroll a greater number of students of color.

History

Chartered in 1789. First state university in North America to admit students (1795). Merged with North Carolina College for Women at Greensboro and North Carolina State College of Agriculture and Engineering at Raleigh to form a multicampus institution designated the University of North Carolina in 1931.

Location

Chapel Hill, (population: 38,719) a beautiful college town in the center of North Carolina near the Research Triangle Park. A three-hour drive to either the North Carolina coast or the mountains in the western part of the state.
