UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT GREENSBORO

http://www.uncg.edu/

Brief Description

A doctorate-granting university offering programs at the baccalaureate, master's, intermediate, and doctoral levels. Its instructional programs are organized in a College of Arts and Sciences and six professional schools (business and economics; education; health and human performance; human environmental sciences; music; and nursing). Graduate studies are offered throughout the campus through the Graduate School. The University of North Carolina at Greensboro is committed to equality of opportunity. To further racial integration, the University actively seeks to recruit and enroll a greater number of black students.

History

Chartered in 1891 as State Normal and Industrial School. Became State Normal and Industrial College in 1896 and North Carolina College for Women in 1919. Merged with the University of North Carolina in 1931 as Women's College of the University of North Carolina. Renamed the University of North Carolina at Greensboro in 1963.

Location

Convenient to the business district of downtown Greensboro (population 200,500), a thriving business, manufacturing, cultural, and educational center in the piedmont region. Greensboro is the home of several major industries.
