A Resolution of the Staff Assembly of the University of North Carolina

October 18, 2011

WHEREAS, the mission of the UNC Staff Assembly is to constructively address the concerns of the employees of the University of North Carolina, including the presentation of staff concerns to the University of North Carolina General Administration, the North Carolina General Assembly and the citizenry of North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, those concerns include the recognition of employees who have gone above and beyond the call of duty; and

WHEREAS, Kelley Eaves-Boykin is a Charter member of the UNC Staff Assembly, served on the first Executive committee and was elected to serve as the second Chairperson of the UNC Staff Assembly; and

WHEREAS, during her tenure as the Chair, Kelley advanced the development of the Erskine B. Bowles Staff Service Award, so named for UNC President Erskine Bowles, and conceived the idea for a Staff Scholarship Fund which is in the process of becoming a reality; and

WHEREAS, Kelley guided the Staff Assembly through uncertain times, amidst historic budget cuts to the University system and served an extra year as the Chair, requiring extraordinary personal and professional efforts on her part; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that the UNC Staff Assembly recognizes and extends deep appreciation for the personal sacrifices made by Kelley Eaves-Boykin in her service to the UNC Staff Assembly and the University of North Carolina; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the UNC Staff Assembly extends to Kelley its warmest regards for a job well done and using the words of the first Staff Assembly Chair, J.C. Boykin, “Thank you for what you do for the “U”!”

Signed on behalf of the UNC Staff Assembly,

Chuck Brink, Chair
